

Shipping, Offshore and Insurance – Interplays, 2015

Tuesday 6 October 2015 at 13.00 – 16.15 hours

To be held at Windahl Sandroos & Co., Frederiksgade 7, 1st floor, DK-1265 Copenhagen K.

The law firm of Windahl Sandroos & Co. cordially invites you to Shipping, Offshore and Insurance – Interplays, 2015. The seminar, held in conjunction with the Danish Maritime Days, is a three hour interactive conference that integrates law and business related to maritime transport and offshore operations. The seminar covers three introductory presentations concerning the liability governing offshore operations such as oil and gas and offshore wind, liability under maritime law, and insurance including P&I insurance.

After a networking break we will integrate the issues in a case that will illustrate the complex interplay between rules governing the offshore and maritime sectors. Focus is on real-life challenges and practical solutions.

The seminar is open to all with an interest in the maritime and offshore sectors, and in addition to professional input the seminar offers an excellent opportunity to network and exchange experiences in an informal atmosphere.

For Danish lawyers the seminar counts with 3 course lessons in the mandatory post-qualification education scheme.

PROGRAMME

13.00	Welcome Offshore Operations – Contracts and Liabilities	Bo Sandroos
13.30	Collision Liability under Maritime Law	Jesper Windahl
14.00	Marine Insurances, including P&I	Michael Boje-Larsen
14.30	Networking break Coffee, drinks and snacks will be served.	-
15.00	Case: Marine Operations The case will illustrate the interplay between the rules and regulations governing liability under maritime law and oil and gas law, respectively. Issues include torts, contracts, liability, insurance, jurisdiction and choice of law. The case session will be facilitated by lawyers Windahl and Sandroos and other partners from the two firms and will be highly interactive with ample time for questions, comments and discussion.	Windahl Sandroos & Co.
16.15	Close of seminar. Networking Refreshments will be served.	