Jenny N. Braat
Managing Director
Danish Maritime

"As an innovative maritime hub, the Danish maritime industry has a lot to offer to the world in terms of advanced sustainable technologies, know-how and quality solutions, and Denmark is a natural place to meet and discuss future maritime solutions and technologies. We are therefore very pleased to invite maritime players from all of the world to join us during the Danish Maritime Days 2018."

Anne H. Steffensen
Director General and CEO
Danish Shipping

"The technological innovation and new regulatory standards have the potential to transform the maritime industry and bring about both new business opportunities and commercial challenges. Danish Maritime Days is a great opportunity to discover new ways of looking at the maritime value chain, to discuss and debate and find new inspiration on how to develop your business within a fast moving and growing maritime industry."

Andreas Nordseth
Director General
Danish Maritime Authority

"It is a great pleasure to invite global maritime players to come to Denmark to participate in our platform for collaboration across the global maritime industry. Together, stakeholders from maritime sectors around the world will be able to discuss solutions for the challenges of today, tomorrow and the future. I am convinced that new and innovative thoughts and ideas will be generated at this event."
